Abundance[®]
CANADA

Generosity is easy in principle, but the realities of financial planning can get pretty complicated.

Wouldn't it be great if someone could explain the available options and opportunities to you?

Abundance Canada can help!

Abundance Canada works with you to establish a Generosity Plan™. This maps out your best strategic options for giving today, tomorrow, and well into the future, while giving you the flexibility to adapt to your changing circumstances and explore new opportunities along the way.

Abundance Canada has been a trusted resource of the EFCC for more than a decade. Their impeccable track record extends even further.

A gift planning consultant can provide you with information on tax-efficient charitable giving, and will help facilitate gifting options such as:

- making a charitable bequest in your will
- donating stocks, bonds, or mutual funds in-kind
- donating private company shares.

These offer you creative giving options beyond what the EFCC can readily handle.

We invite you to reach out to Abundance Canada for all your charitable giving. You can call 1.800.772.3257 or visit their website at www.abundance.ca for details.
